DIRECTOR'S MESSAGE

Dear Patron,

You have responded so enthusiastically to our previous productions over the past seven years, that I am delighted and proud to be presenting to you the best loved of the musicals here tonight, "The Great Waltz," featuring the glorious music of Johann Strauss.

I feel sure that the long awaited presentation of The Waltz will delight you. It is vivid, rich, lavish, and has delighted audiences in practically every city in the world.

The perfect harmony of the music, the splendour and good taste of the settings, the extravagance of the costumes, the excellence of the orchestral scoring, and the glorious voices of the company will, we are sure, make your visit to "The Great Waltz" a happy occasion.

This has been one of the most satisfying works we have attempted. It has been a pleasure to sing the Strauss music, and I hope our enjoyment will make itself felt across the footlights and that you too will feel our pleasure.

This is our fourteenth production since our formation in 1961, and we know that we have earned a place in the community as leaders in our field — that of entertainment. However, we need your support to continue, and will continue to entertain you with productions of high quality, which we trust you will enjoy, and that you will continue to honour us with your patronage. Thank you for coming tonight, relax and be entertained, and have a safe journey home.

Yours sincerely,

J. B. FOLEY, Director
